

2-3 March 2019

The Bhumisiri Mangkhalanusorn Building,
The Main Auditorium 12th Floor,
Chulalongkorn University Hospital

Chulalongkorn International Forum

Listening to patient's concerns
'Towards a personalised therapy in Parkinson's disease'

2 March 2019

8.30-9.00	Opening ceremony
9.00-10.30	Session 1: Global vs. Asian views on Parkinson's disease	Chairs : Kamman Phanthumchinda (Thailand) Pairoj Boonkongchuen (Thailand)
9.00-9.30	A global view on Parkinson's disease 2018: Neurologist's perspectives	Claudia Trenkwalder (Germany)
9.30-10.00	Listening to patient's concerns, Asian perspectives of unmet needs	Roongroj Bhidayasiri (Thailand)
10.00-10.30	Are we better than James Parkinson in diagnosing Parkinson's disease? A look at current diagnostic modalities	Hubert Fernandez (USA)
10.30-11.00	Break
11.00-12.30	Session 2: Updates on Parkinson's disease management	Chairs : Pansiri Chairungsarit (Thailand) Somchai Towanabut (Thailand)
11.00-11.30	Optimising oral medications for patient's concerns on motor non-motor symptoms: A clinical concept	Beomseok Jeon (Korea)
11.30-12.00	Personalised management of Parkinson's disease: Lessons from genetic studies	Nobutaka Hattori (Japan)
12.00-12.30	Current non-oral strategies in advanced Parkinson's disease: Success stories and a look to the future	Elena Moro (France)
12.30-13.30	Lunch
13.30-14.15	Afternoon symposium: Practical strategies in managing sleep problems in Parkinson's disease	Moderator: Roongroj Bhidayasiri (Thailand) Claudia Trenkwalder (Germany)
14.15-16.30	Session 3: Difficult-to-treat symptoms in Parkinson's disease	Chairs : Jitthanorn Suwannatemi (Thailand) Krisna Piravej (Thailand)
14.15-14.45	Dissecting gait and balance problems in Parkinson's disease: Strategies for individualised management	Pattamon Panyakaew (Thailand)
14.45-15.15	Visual symptoms in Parkinson's disease: What neurologists can offer?	Jee Young-Lee (Korea)
15.15-15.30	Break
15.30-16.00	Lessening caregiver's burden: Comprehensive strategies for neuropsychiatric symptoms in Parkinson's disease	Yih-Ru Wu (Taiwan)
16.00-16.30	Hyperkinetic manifestations in Parkinson's disease: Recognition and treatment	Raymond Rosales (Philippines)

3 March 2019

8.00-9.30	Session 4: Asian perspectives on the management of parkinsonian disorders	Chairs : Tai Tran (Vietnam) Suwanna Setthawatcharawanich (Thailand)
8.00-8.30	Inherited parkinsonian disorders: An Asian focus	Hui Fang Shang (Republic of China)
8.30-9.00	Atypical and secondary parkinsonian disorders in Asian ethnic groups	Lim Thien Thien (Malaysia)
9.00-9.30	Does traditional and complimentary Asian medicine have a role in Parkinson's disease management?	TBA
9.30-10.00	Break
10.00-11.30	Session 5: Holistic approach in the management of Parkinson's disease	Chairs : Surat Tanprawate (Thailand) Vorapun Senanarong (Thailand)
10.00-10.30	How to evaluate patient's concerns in clinical practice? Perceptions vs. rating scales and technology	Pattamon Panyakaew (Thailand) Jirada Sringean (Thailand)
10.30-11.00	Holistic evaluation of device-aided therapy in PD	Onanong Phokaewwarangkul (Thailand)
11.00-11.30	Real-life practice of palliative care in PD: What do we learn from the international survey?	Shen-Yang Lim (Malaysia)
11.30-12.15	Luncheon symposium: DBS for Parkinson's disease: Western and Asian perspectives	Moderator: Onanong Phokaewwarangkul (Thailand) Elena Moro (France)
12.15-13.00	Lunch
13.00-14.30	Session 6: Addressing patient's hopes in Parkinson's disease	Chairs : Surat Singmaneeakulchai (Thailand) Prachaya Srivanitchapoom (Thailand)
13.00-13.30	Current insights into the aetiologies of Parkinson's disease: Future applications for disease prevention	Eng-King Tan (Singapore)
13.30-14.00	Exercise, diet, improved sleep in Parkinson's disease: Future applications for disease modification	Priya Jagota (Thailand)
14.00-14.30	Neurorestorative therapies in Parkinson's disease: A hope for curative treatment	Young Ho Sohn (Korea)
14.30-15.00	Break
15.00-16.30	Session 7: Personalised management in PD, real-case demonstration	All faculties

Contact Email : info@chulapd.org
www.chulapd.org